

Newsletter: December 2009

Brussels Airline: New AAI Partner

AAI is proud to announce a new corporate partnership with Brussels Airlines! The airline will offer a 25% reduction on economy fares for European travel to all AAI members.

Brussels Airlines is the national flag carrier of Belgium. With its hub in Brussels, it serves 60 European destinations in 25 countries, and also flies to 15 African countries, 5 countries in Asia and the Middle East as well as USA and Canada. Check out www.brusselsairlines.com for details of routes, timetables and fares.

This benefit is available with immediate effect to all AAI members who have paid their 2010 membership fees. Travel can be booked directly through the Brussels Airlines website with the AAI promotional code. To request the code please email AAI-Board@aiesec-alumni.org. For membership renewals, please click here.

Hammamet Awaits!

The dates of the AIESEC Alumni International Meeting at IPM 2010 are now confirmed. Hammamet, Tunisia will welcome AIESEC alumni from all over the world from 19th – 21st Feb 2010 for a memorable Alumni conference, followed by a 4 day study tour of Hammamet and the Sahara. Book your tickets now!

It's the perfect time to take a short break with the family, and the Organising Committee look forward to welcoming families and friends as well. Conference venue and accommodation will be at the prestigious Diar Lemdina el Bousten resort. Check out the venue and accommodation here.

The conference agenda will include the Opening Ceremony, professional sessions, Global Village, Tunisian Night, and a Business Dinner - with the primary objective, as always, being to spend time with old friends and new. The official website is due to be launched in the next couple of weeks. Watch this space!

To register your interest and to avail of 'early bird' discounts, contact us at events@aiesec-alumni.org.

Can You Help AIESEC...?

AIESEC is looking for a new Global Partner, and is inviting alumni to recommend organisations AIESEC International should contact.

Here's what they say: "Are you a well connected alumnus and want to give back to the AIESEC Network? Tell us who you recommend AIESEC International should meet. We are looking for our next global partner and we want to you to be part of this. It is time to engage alumni for AIESEC's growth!"

Send in your comments and suggestions to AAI-Board@aiesec-alumni.org or write to Franklin Morales, Global External Relations Manager on AIESEC International, at franklinm@ai.aiesec.org.

More alumni news and further details of these events are available on the AAI website.

Future Events

AIESEC Alumni International Meeting at IPM 2010: Hammamet, Tunisia, February 19th-21st 2010

AIESEC Alumni Iberoamerican Congress (RAC): Lima, Peru, March 13th-15th 2010

AIESEC Alumni Germany Rhine Cruise: Koblenz, Germany, July 24th 2010

Thinking About Becoming a Member of AAI?

3 new reasons to join now for only 50 EUR:

1. Get 30 EUR off the AAIM Tunisia fees
2. Get 25% off Brussels Airline European fares
3. Participate in the AAI webinars at a preferential fee

Click here for more information and to join

Pay 2010 Membership Fees