Once an AIESECer...

When a few young AIESEC Alumni met in the Boston area for their MBA studies at Brandeis Graduate School, they decided to connect with the AIESEC local committee, but discovered that all the old chapters had closed down.

Ever the AIESECers, these enterprising alumni called AIESEC US, formed a student organisation on campus, and are now an official extension! The new LCP and EB are all alumni of other countries/LCs, willing to put in the time and effort to start the chapter to give future undergraduates the AIESEC experience.

Along the way, with the help of AI, the alumni database and the wonder that is the internet (Facebook and LinkedIn in particular), they have identified more than 100 AIESEC alumni in the area! Kudos to these alumni for keeping the AIESEC spirit alive.

New Board of AIESEC Alumni IberoAmerica

AIESEC Alumni IberoAmerica (AAIB) recently elected Pablo Toledo and Sara Romero to join Rosendo Jurado (President 2008-2010) and María Medina on the AAIB Board of Directors. AAI would like to congratulate the newly elected Board Members, and wish the team and AAIB much success!

Belgian Alumni Event

More than 100 stakeholders, including Alumni, witnessed the re-launch of Alumni Association Belgium at the Belgian National Alumni and Stakeholder Event in May, hosted by the Gent Management School. AAI's very own Victor Loewenstein was a keynote speaker at the event. (See pictures / read more.)
